“ It's easy to hold a magnifying glass to someone to identify their good and bad traits...

Lower that magnifying glass and observe Tom's son Robert, who loves his family and works hard to support them,

His daughter Cynthia who loves her husband while laboring at Walmart to make ends meet.

Tom's youngest daughter Rebecca is attending one of the best Universities in the country Stetson University in Deland FL.

Tom also loved and cared for his wife Dawn when she was sick and required extra encouragement and attention to recover and get back on her feet.

No one could ask for a better legacy for the rest of the world!!!!

“ Hello Dawn & Family. I am so sorry for your (our) loss. It has been years since I have seen Tom, but I sure do remember the very tasty dessert he would bring to the annual Ricks Pool Party in Greentown, Indiana. He was always nice to me and I enjoyed having conversations with him. He was a very kind and generous man. I love and miss you all. May God bless and comfort you. Love, Uncle Russ (Russell Ricks)

“ The memories I have of you and all our family trips to see you guys in Indiana are my most fondest memories of my childhood. You were always so loving, thoughtful, and protective. I am so blessed to have had in you my life but most importantly as my Uncle. You were as soft, sweet, and caring as an over-sized teddy bear even if your physical presents was a little intimidating. You had a heart like not many I know. I love you so much and it breaks my heart to know I will never see that big smile or get another bear hug from you again.....not at least on this earth. I can only image that Grannie is fussing at you and wondering why you are there so soon. Tell her we love her and that I know she is watching over me and my family because I feel her presents daily.

To the family you left behind I pray for their peace and comfort. Do not be sad but rejoice in the memories you have. Tommy would not want people fussing or crying over him but would be glad that ya'll all are together celebrating his life. So take this time to reconnect with everyone and share your most fondest memories.

We love you all so much! Krista, Brett, and Braydin Mitchell!
