“ Many great memories with Tina and Steve.. top 2.. doing couples retreats ...learning your partners love language...and even though it was not one of the options.. Steve would say Tina's is her "honey do list" .. To which she would agree... 2nd ... many years ago before cell phone were attached to our hands .. we did a video date night for bette jos birthday...with Tina and Steve, Kathy and David Zimmerman...men against women..2 hours to see how many people we could get to say or sing happy birthday...both groups were creative..cops. strangers, firemen, friends, and the men went to Brandon recency movie and the manager went into a theater and had everyone sing happy birthday to bette jo... it was great... we shared the videos and just laughed... rest in peace my friend..

“ Steve was such a great man! My heart breaks for his family and all who loved him. He was a blessing to so many people and it was a privilege to know him. I have no doubt that he was greeted in heaven with the words "Well done good and faithful servant". Steve loved God. He was hard working, giving, kind, and funny, would help you in any way that he could and he never met a stranger. His love for others, especially his family was so strong and apparent. I am thankful to have known him and will cherish the great memories I have of Steve. He loved to joke around and could always make me laugh. He got such a kick out of little pranks like sticking empty water bottles on my car antenna or filling up the front seat with them if I forgot to lock the door. I rest assured that we will see his smile again one day. Until then he will be greatly missed!

“ Went out to dinner with Steve and a group of friends, we were just getting seated, when I excused myself to head to the restroom. While in my private booth trying to be quiet, I hear someone open the door and call my name out nice and loud. So much for privacy. I answered, yes. The waiter asked what I would like to drink. Never have I had that kind of service in a men's room. I can still hear Steve's laugh today. He sent the waiter in to take my order. We all had a great laugh and a fun memory.
