“ Julie, I am so sorry. You and your family are so loved. Praying for God's love and peace bring you even a small amount of comfort. My favorite thing about Steve was the joy and general love of people he showed to everyone he met, especially the children he taught and worked with at City Pointe. He was a blessing to everyone and will be dearly missed.

“ Mrs. Julie, I'm truly and deeply sorry for your loss. Please accept my sincere and deepest condolences. I have to say that I'm grateful that I had the privilege of knowing Steve from City Pointe Church, and had the great honor to serve alongside him in children's ministry (City Pointe Kids), during the time I was at City Pointe. I loved his heart for what he loved doing in ministry. I also loved and enjoy seeing him pour out God's love into them kiddo's lives and heart. It was nice to see how they loved seeing Mr. Steve on Sunday morning, whether it was to hear one of his stories or just being silly with them. I pray that God gives you and your family peace, comfort and strength during this difficult time of loss in Jesus name.

“ Mrs. Julie, I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest condolences. I didn't have the privilege of knowing Steve on a personal level. However our son Samuel really liked him and enjoyed spending time with him at City Pointe Kids. May the Lord give you and family supernatural peace and comfort in Jesus name.

“ Loved seeing Steve serving in Children's church. He had a love for those kids. What tugged at my heart about him the most was his love for Julie and his kids; he was passionate about them.
