Steven was in my daycare class in the 1980's. I just heard his mom joined him in heaven. What a blessed reunion that must be. I am glad he had a happy life and sorry he had to go so soon.

“ I met Steven one time just this past month. His family and mine was brought together by our special children. As I talked with him for over an hour he seemed to be such a gentle soul and full of love for his wife and children. His wife and family are in my prayer and my thoughts a lot through out the day and will continue to be. May the Holy Spirit wrap you in love and peace.

“ Many thoughts and prayers to the family. My son Jarrod and I met Steven in youth group at First Assembly Plant City. He was such a nice guy, the way he took time sharing his knowledge of the drums with my son. My heart goes out to the family, for the greif they must be going through.

“ Prayers for Steven's Family. I ran into him two weeks ago at Sonny's and we talked about old high school friends, the passing of friends that we were close to and his family and the recent trip he took to New York. I am sorry for everyone's loss and I hope that everybody finds peace and know that he is watching over his kids and family with that big smile on his face.

“ Anytime I saw Steven he had that big smile, we would run into each other most of the time at an eatery or grocery store, one time I was asking about a sugar free pie, he said "mrs Judy you don't need that sugar free pie!" Lol He was so proud of his family. Anytime I think about Steven I remember that big smile and the big hug!!

“ I really didn't get the pleasure of knowing Steven, but from the stories I've heard he sounds like a wonderful person with a big heart and a contagious laughter. May your smile warm the hearts of those that miss you. Your memory will live on in so many people and you will never be forgotten. God Bless all!

“ Where did you go Steven said Bobby. Come on Steven its not that bad. I Love you. I miss you. My Mom told me that you are taking a trip somewhere and that I will see you one day. I told Mom you and I can go together sometime....I'll be waiting to see you again. Be careful cause you are my bestest buddy. I don't ever want to loose you, Mom said I never will.... I really love you a lot..... Bobby Britton

Steven I miss your contagious laughter. I also miss your texts of you and Brooklyn, or you and Kairstin, or you and Cody or you and Kaitlin..I just plain miss you a lot. I will always treasure your loving to build a bonfire!! When you spoke about it somehow I felt like it was already lit. You had such excitement when you spoke that people could actually feel like we were right there. Oh God, please take special care of this special man for who he is, for his hard work that has touched so many of us, and for his loving friendship. I will truly miss you Steven and please know that Love is thicker than water. I pray God will shower you everyday with his love, all for you... Until we meet again one day, You are with the Lord, and your spirit will be that bright light that we will all see everyday and every night.... WE love you Steven.....

“ Prayers for Steven's family.. It has been 20 years since I seen Steven (High School Graduation) but he was always a kind and sincere person. Always willing to help someone, and had a contagious smile. It breaks my heart that the world loses such a sweet soul. Rest in Peace my friend!

“ Steven, our buddy, our friend.... we sure are missing you! Can't believe we'll never see that big smile again or hear that contagious laughter from the bottom of your belly!! Thanks for sharing yourself with our family and allowing us to be a part of yours. Thanks for the care and effort you put forth at work. You were an amazing person with a gentle soul and a kind spirit...you were the type of friend we were all blessed to have and even wished we could be like. Be at peace now, in Heaven. PS...We chose the red candle for you...."Roll Tide"...
