“ Sue...I have so many wonderful childhood memories of you...You are going to be always remembered...It is so hard to say good bye...to our first of 22 first cousins to leave this earth behind...and join Jesus and other loved ones who have gone on before...We will always remember growing up with you, and memories of all of us under the Christmas tree at our precious Granny Cook's, lighting sparklers, and having so much fun playing so many child hood games...Until we see you again...know we will always keep you in our hearts. Our prayers to her immediate family for strength to get through these days of huge grief. All our love, your cousin Sharon Cook Bailey, and family

“ God has a new angel in heaven with Sue. I am blessed to have had Sue as both a professional acquaintance and friend. We shared a special bond for which I will forever carry an abundance of gratitude in my heart. As you grieve, know that those who love Sue are remembering you and honoring her memory.
