“ I so enjoyed Susan and our time together at all the Fair events and Ag Venture. She was so much fun and I truly enjoyed all of our moments we shared. I have one of her leather bracelets that will remind me of this very special lady every time I wear it. My heart is rejoicing in the fact she is in heaven, happy, whole, no sadness or tears just having the best time with her love.

I just found out about Susan's passing. What a sweet, Christian woman of God. I moved down here from Indiana Feb 1986 and was looking for someone to do my hair when needed. I just happened to work down the street from where she was behind Sonny's BBQ on 14th St W. I followed her from one location to another until she decided to close up shop. That was the last time I spoke to her. She always knew what would look good on me. My mom met her at that time and she passed away two days before Bruce. I will see you again soon. Miss you Susan.
