“ Dear Mary Ellen, I was saddened by the news of Susan' passing and only wish that we could have had more vacations like the one we eight had , in Hilton Head in 1999. It was truly a fun time, and one I shall never forget. I pray that Susan went peacefully to her rest, that the Good Lord will watch over her and give you the comfort of knowing how wonderful a person she really was. May you find peace in this difficult time and know that there are many of us who will be here for you! With Respect, Tim McKeown##imported-begin##Tim McKeown##imported-end##

“ Dear Mary Ellen and family: It was my most wonderful opportunity to work with Susan at LifePath Hospice. She was a beautiful, kind person with a heart of gold. Her sense of humor brightened up my day when I would speak with her. My prayers are with your family at this time. God has gained and hospice has lost a beautiful angel.
