“ I am so glad you shared the pictures of Aunt Susie and Uncle Bob. She has a beautiful smile and always seemed happy. I know she missed Bob and is glad to be back with him and with Keith. I hope to be able to see you guys soon. Please know that I will be thinking of you during this time. Much love, Brenda

“ It saddens me to lose my Aunt Susie but I look at the smile on her face that the family posted and I can only imagine how happy she is being with God and seeing all her family and friends up in Heaven. You will all miss her dearly but the memories you have of her will help you all get thru the difficult times when you wish she was still here with you. There will be a day when God will call you home also and then you to will have that beautiful smile as you enter Heaven's Gates and see your loved ones waiting for you. May God wrap his arms around each one of you and assure you that He is right there for you when you need Him the most. Our Love, Sympathy and Prayers are with each one of the family, Joe, Alice & Tiffany Battcher and Carolyn Christenberry
