“ Uncle Dale You are loved so much and will be missed.
"Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. In My Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to my Myself; that where come I am, there you may be also. John 14: 1-3
God bless you Aunt Peggy, Sheryl and Ron and all the Families. We love you Walter Joe, Joyce and Families

“ Dale & Peggy were our neighbors when we were newly weds. We would take baths at there house when it was too cold to take an outdoor shower as we did not have an indoor bathroom. Dale guessed when I was expecting because he said I ate so many tomato sandwiches at their house. Later in life, we traveled together & have many good memories of those trips. Dale prayed from the heart & we never knew what he would say when he stood up in church.

He will be missed by all. Prayers for Peggy, Sheryl, Ron & family. 🙏

“ They are Aunt Peg and Uncle Dale to me too, though no blood relation. We are a part of the family of God, though. I know I'll see Uncle Dale and hear him sing again. That's one thing I missed...was his leading the singing at Welcome and his beautiful solos. We spent many times at their house playing with Sheryl and Terry. Prayers of comfort for Aung Peg and Sheryl.

“ Dale’s parents, “Uncle Rufus and Aunt Maggie”, (not really uncle and aunt) but growing up in Picnic..Most everyone was uncle and aunt. Uncle Rufus and Aunt Maggie were our closest neighbors. We couldn’t quiet yell loud enough for them to hear us, but I am sure, they probably watched out for Ginger and me, as we climbed the fence to pet their cows.

They always had a snack for us when we came to visit. Sometimes when we saw Dale and Peggy’s car parked in their yard...Ginger and I knew Cheryl and Terry were available to play. We always enjoyed picking up pecans for their tree, if we could beat the squirrels. We would sit on the their front porch rock in chairs and crack pecans with our hands. Tlmes we hold dear in our hearts....Ginger and I were “really” related to Dale.
