“ When I was a small child and I lived wh you and Granny, I remember every night you would get home and we would eat our TV dinners together and on those special nights you would read me Chicken little ❤️ Everytime you would read the sky is falling you would let me bop you in your head ❤️ I miss you and love you so much xoxo

“ Uncle Buddy I know I didn't get to see you often but I do have some good memories growing up. Some may have been scared of you but I never was....I knew you loved me! I'm so glad I talked to you on your birthday and had a chance to catch up. Mostly I'm glad the last thing I said to you was "love you"....and you replied "love you too".....I hung up the phone and teared up because at that very moment I realized that wasn't something you said freely. I always knew in my heart but this time you said it.
