“ Terry was one of my best friends. I married his cousin Buddy. Before that we went to school together. He called me sister Janice and I called him brother Terry. He made me laugh harder than anyone I have ever been around. I did love him like a brother. We were friends for almost sixty years. He called me right before he died. I will miss him forever. I wrote to him when he was in Vietnam. He sent pictures. He missed his brother Richard and sister Kitty so much. I know he is so happy to be with them now and with his parents. Rest in peace my friend.

“ I am just seeing this today. I am deeply saddened to hear I will never visit my dear old neighbor again.
HUGS ❤️ ☐ to the family.

Terry was always warm and inviting, a true gentleman. He had been through and seen a lot in his years and shared with wise sentiment.

Love those days we were able to chat across the fence.
