“ My dearest Daddy.. I miss you deeply. I stay strong by hearing your voice saying, “Be strong”. I hope to keep making you proud of me. I play all the wonderful memories we made throughout my life. As a little girl I remember you putting change under your pillow (our secret place) so I could get ice cream after school from the ice cream truck, you and mother driving me to my first prom in the black car and dropping me off like a limo driver I was so proud), driving you and mother to Georgia to visit Freddy (we did that a lot), our 3 week vacation to Texas (Wow, you talked about that all the time) most off all the ones we made in the past few years, I never wanted to take a moment forgranted. Your laughs, stories, game night, your ideas, crafts and mini trips we’d take, my co-pilot driving through back roads just to see new things.

Thank you for showing me so much love Daddy. I love you! Mary Jane

“ One thing that I learned from Granpa Vela, was the unconditional love he had for his family, he had so many good qualities (humble, caring, loyal, loving). I will never forget that he welcomed me in to his home and his family! God bless you and Rest In Peace Granpa Vela.

“ Grandpa taught me what it means to have a passion and work hard. His love for cars and family have passed to many of the family, and I'm honored to include myself in that number. Every time I see an old car I wonder "I bet grandpa had one of those". He was always working, supporting his family, and placing others before himself for as long as I can remember. His virtue, strength, selflessness, and love for his family will always be with me. I love you grandpa. I'll keep my car clean and lookin like a brand new. I'll make you proud grandpa.

“ I was honored to have Mr. Vela as my Father-In-Law for the past 10 years. And we shared a home with him and my wonderful Mother-In-Law for the past 1-1/2 years. I learned a lot about what makes a great man and wonderful father and husband by watching him with his children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and great great grandchildren. None of us will ever be the man that he was, but we certainly have a model to work from. I will never forget your mischievous grin or our nights playing games at the breakfast table. Thank you for allowing me the privilege of being a part of your family. - Smyer -

“ During Daddy's retirement years, he enjoyed projects! I'm blessed to have been there during many of those projects and being a part of them as well. I bought a table from a second-hand store, we stripped, painted and stained! He and mother came over every morning for a month to complete our project. That beautiful table is now my breakfast table! Thank you Daddy for being an amazing man. Love you 😘 MJS
