He was eddies best friend who love to be on the airboat or just hang out by the fire. He always had your back whether you were right or wrong! Greatly missed & always in our hearts.

ME

“ I grew up with Timmy, Michael, AKA Mikey and Charlene. Every summer, I would go stay with them and Timmy and Mikey would come to Arcadia. Man,,the memories.I was telling Mahlon (My 12 yr old), who is playing baseball, "if they threw one over the plate to Timmy, it was a goner...one more baseball player for sure... Over the last several months, I have been talking to Timmy. I asked him, "so I don't have to wonder, where are you going to spend eternity?" He said, I'm saved, I'm going to heaven. I said, Ok, when you get there, Uncle Tim will meet you at the gate. Tell him I said hello. He said he would. I have no doubt that Timmy is in heaven right now. No more cancer, no more pain or sorrow.

I will miss talking to you my friend, until then.

Your cuz,,

That was one of Tim's favorite times in his life being in that crazy cow pasture. I can here him laughing in heaven now as we recall all those wonderful memories. Kathy*
