“ I am so sorry for your loss. Please accept my sincere condolences. Having a loved one pass away is one of the hardest things we have to deal with in this life. Please be assured that God does care and will remember your loved one. In times like these I find comfort from God's word the bible. Revelation 21:4 is particularly soothing where God says" and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Please remember and cherish the memories of you dear loved one and look forward to the time when death will be a thing of the past- just as God has promised.

“ To the Steinbach / Mizer family,

I cannot say I understand, I cannot say I feel your pain, I cannot say I know what you are going through, but I can say Mrs. Tina will be truly missed. They say time heal all wounds, I pray to GOD that this is true. One thing I do know is Mrs. Tina loved her family. To Paul, Jeremy, Chelsea, and Matt my hearts go out to each one of you. Rest In Paradise Mrs. Tina...

“ My time spent with you,there was never a dull moment. I remember the best ones clearly as the night of chelseas fling before the ring at dinner I called you Tina and you said ppssshh call me mom! the night felt endless you telling us your stories and sharing funny moments from your marriage and word of advice. The hard rockwhere we commpared sizes of mellons hahah you were just always a character and were never shy about what anyone could talk to you about. you were always one to listen and seemed to say the right things people needed to hear. your smile and laughter will be missed! may you rest in peace and we will be reunited one day!

“ It is with a heavy heart I write this today. I have been looking for the words to say and realized they may never come. Sunday our lives were turned upside down. Tina Steinbach was a magnificent mother, loving wife, and friends to many. She was someone to turn to, someone who wouldn't judge, someone who would listen and someone who would help point you in the right direction. She was one of the most important people in my life. Her laugh could warm an entire room. She was a phenomenal woman. One of the sweetest I have known. In have had the pleasure to share many memories with Tina. Swimming in the back yard, watching Bucs games, and hanging out back in the shed. The boat ride home on New Years where Tina had Chelsea, Paul and I rolling in the boat. The private talks we had, especially the two we had right before the wedding, I will never forget. It meant so much to hear what she had to say. The night that Tina, Chelsea, and I probably drank a little too much on the back porch and I thought Chelsea was gonna have to stay the night with her. She was laughing so hard she couldn't get off the blow up mattress in the living room. I swear we laughed for an hour...about nothing at all. Tina had a nickname for everyone. She never called someone by their full name...Jer, Chels, Ry, Dust. Still the only person ever to be able to call me Dust and me not care. I was honored to call her my mother in law and she will always have a special place in my heart. She may be gone but she will never be forgotten. I will always hear your voice telling me you loved me as I hugged you. I miss you so much already, I love you Tina.

Tina was always a great person to talk to and she always made you feel like you had been her friend forever. She will be surely missed by so many. I feel blessed to have had her in my life for many years of business and friendship. I give me prayers to Paul and her family in this tough time. We all know she is smiling down on us all with her perpetual smile.
