“ You were the best father figured I could have ever asked for and you showed my mom and my family such an unconditional love as if we had known you your whole life. You watched me grow up and you were there for me for whatever and whenever. Countless hours spent driving me to school, countless beers I watched you try growing up at breweries all over the country and finally turning 21 and being able to grab a cold one with you, countless days spent at the movies watching marvel and star wars premieres passing a large tub of popcorn back and forth and finishing it before the movie even started. You shared so much life wisdom with me recently and the last time I saw you I couldn't stop talking about everywhere I was going to take you in Austin when you came to visit. I'm glad I hugged you a little tighter last time you dropped me off at the airport. You'll be in my heart forever Todd ❤️ Rest in Paradise with Nancy and your Dad.
