“ I met Tommy when he was a week or two old. I was in the USAF with his Dad, Tom Jr. We served in Colorado and in Maine. We became good friends and met Tommy’s Mon, Gail, when we were transferred to Maine.

Tom and I volunteered for Southeast Asia and he was selected. I’ve still got a letter he wrote from there in late 1969 or early 1970. I was shocked to learn both Tom and his son Tommy had passed. Amazing how some people you meet in life remain with you throughout your life.
