“ I met Tony through my Uncle Billy. We all hung out for years and there was never one time Tony saw me that he didn't tell me just how "purty" he thought I was! Tony was family to me and my husband which he called "Big Jeff". He will be missed greatly. Rest in peace our dear friend.

“ Our deepest sympathy goes out to the Cook family for their loss of Tony. Being married to Tony at one time we shared a wonderful son, Anthony, throughout our lives. Tony and the entire Cook family always welcomed , my husband, Irwin, and I with open arms and often showed us their love.

His passing will leave a void in many lives, but will always remain in all of our hearts. Tony is no longer suffering. May that knowledge bring some comfort to all.

Our sincere thoughts and prayers are with you. With our deepest sympathy, Rayette Hutto Wilensky and Irwin B Wilensky.

I first met Tony back in our elementary school days. His parents bought the house next door to mine (next to the back end of Burney Elementary school yard) and Tony, Benny, and Louise became my neighbors. I have many fond memories of playing baseball and other activities with them.

*God bless!
