“ I didn't know Tony long but in that short bit we shared plenty. Storys of our kids (which he was so proud), motorcycles and just plain craziness. I really did enjoy our conversations and the fact I can't have anymore of them means I will tressure the ones we had. Tony was a good man and I send my prayers to all of his family during this tough time. Have a good final ride Tony and let all that hair flow in the wind (inside joke). RIP Tony D

“ I remember we rented a couple of Harleys and rode through Jerome, AZ and up through Sedona, AZ. just he and I. It was the best time I spent with him. I can't believe he's gone. This really sucks.
