“ I'll never forget the day I met Tonya I just stopped in at my job (childcare center) to say hello (I was on vacation), when my husbands aunt told me we hired a new teacher. We walked into her classroom and were introduced by my aunt, there was something about her that made me feel like I had known her all my life... Weird right?! Then my aunt and I were walking around and she showed me the new kids which included Austin who was napping, then Cody who was fighting on his mat turning over he looks at me and says hi Aunt Shelly,! Both the teacher and my aunt were like is that your nephew? I said no, I never saw him before in my life and they then mentioned it was Tonyas youngest. Amazing right..... Tonya and Donald became some of our best friends. It was all kinda strange cuz we all felt we knew each other forever. Tonya was an amazing woman, and a friend like no other. When I heard the news I was devastated and didn't wanna believe it. She so young it's just not fair! My heart is breaking not only for her loss but for her three amazing sons and family.

“ I met my beautiful friend Tonya over 17 years ago. She had a contagious smile that would light up the room. I have so many wonderful memories of all the fun things we did together and I will cherish them forever. My heart broke when I received the news that she was gone...way to soon. From the small things when she would just hang out at my house while the kids played, when she cut my hair and gave me pedicures because I was too broke to afford them, kids play dates, shopping, giving me so many of my favorite recipes (Tonya's chicken), birthday parties, grown up nights out, you were the best daiquiri maker and my favorite host, my sounding board when I needed advise, our cruise to the Carribean and my favorite picture of my girls...oh how we laughed trying to get them to sit still for our Christmas picture (I always think of you when I see it). We just had fun and we laughed. You were a best friend to me. Then life happened, kids started growing up, different schools, new hobbies, work and we both had so much going on and always in different directions. I would give anything to remember our last call. I know we said to each other..."we really need to get together soon". My heart is truly broken, I miss you and love you! See you when I get to heaven. Love Michele

“ When I first met Tonya it was at EBLL. I thought, as we sat and cheered on our boys "I could totally hang with this girl! Her passion to cheer on Dillon was the same as I had with Kyle. The love of baseball was a mutual interest. As we spent several years on the Rockets our memories continued to grow. She spoke often of her boys and how much she wanted for them. Her smile and love for her boys will never be forgotten! RIP Tonya..Love the Knees

We will always remember and cherish when we were such a close-knit group, spending so many hours at the ball park. Practice every night, games from early till late on the weekends. Travel ball, little league, all-stars, going to Cooperstown together. We will always remember you behind home plate, long before the game started getting the best angle to help Blue out with his calls. We will always remember how nervous you would get when it was late in the game and the score was close. Time is called, Coach Rob exits the dugout, then a lone voice that could be heard above all others would say those immortal words: "Damn it Rob!" Over the years, that phrase became predictable, and expected. It wasn't a curse, it was a show of solidarity and trust. It became a rally, and cheer, and was taken as a "let's go, I have faith in you to fix this situation." When we came out on top you would say "Damn it Rob" with a huge smile on your face. When it did not work out you would say "Damn it Rob" with no smile on her face. That phrase became a greeting, a term of endearment and a badge of a close friendship. Your baseball family, including the all of the Vighs will miss you dearly. "Damn it Tonya"

“ Oh Tonya, what will I do, we spent most every Saturday together comparing notes about my Alex and your Dylan. The minute you saw me you always greeted me with a loving hug. How did I know that a week ago Saturday was going to be my last hug :(. Then I texted you for 3 days cause we were supposed to meet up on Wednesday--alas no answers because you were already an angel. I only knew you two years but you were one of thee best people I ever had met in my life. I need to see mom Jan and give her a hug now and we'll still go get our cars washed together on Wednesdays and remember you. I love you darling.

“ Tonya... 30 plus years of friendship. We have passed the torch in our family. Either it was a skateland night, a slumber party, you riding on the hood of the iroc z as I drove down the street, helping each other move, Summerfield together, our nightly walls, to us always having each others backs. I am so thankful to have so many memories and now your oldest and my brother. Best friends. How lucky are we. I love you so much, and miss you like crazy. We have endless memories that I will always treasure. I am so sure that heaven just got brighter because that beautiful smile and laugh just glows beyond measures. Give Heather a hug for me and tell her we all miss her. You know Donald and I and both of our families will watch after your boys as we all know you will as well. Rest in peace beautiful and know we all love you and miss you so much.

“ Rick and I were fortunate to have known you for close to 10 years. We met in tee ball and our boys played together for years. Your smile was infectious and your heart made of gold. You were a "true good soul" in this crazy world of judgemental people. There were parties, kid sleepovers and awesome baseball tournaments. Each event starting with a huge hug and us laughing about what was going on in our lives - the good, bad and the ugly. You were an incredible mom, always putting your boys first. I admired this most about you, as I know being a single mom is hard. You will be missed sweet lady, but I know in my heart that you are flying high in heaven with your angel wings. God speed my friend!

“ I am so sorry that I will be out of town and unable to attend the service. Tonya, we shared many years together, cheering on our boys as a village of baseball moms. Those are memories very close to my heart, now and always. I am smiling when I confidently say that you will no doubt be remembered as the most spirited and loudest baseball mom ever; what made you special is how loudly and proudly you cheered for ALL of the boys, all of the time. The video of Kody hitting his first ever home run ends with you giving him a high five at the dugout... you were so excited for him that you jumped out of your chair and beat me over there.

Dillon, you have a community of moms that have watched you grow from an energetic kid into a confident young man so never doubt that you are a part of a family that extends way beyond the baseball field. We are all here for you and praying for you and your brothers.
