“ I met the Hollands when I was 9 years old in December of 1983, my first thoughts were nice people, but was not thrilled at first , since the Registers had moved on to other things, but in time they grew on me, Mrs Treva was just one of the sweetest ladies I had ever known always in good spirits smiling & she loved the Lord & her actions showed it to be true, she taught my Sunday school class for one year & always had interesting stories to tell us, if she had not seen you in a while she always welcomed you with open arms, & always made you feel right at home. She will be missed but I know we will see her very soon.

“ As a Christian Mrs Holland walked the talked! A song I learned as a little kid, listening to my mother sing as I followed her foot to foot, is more appropriate to say on behalf of Mrs. Treva Holland than any words I could muster. The song is May The Works I've Done Speak For Me.

Verse 1

*May the works I've done speak for me.
May the works (I've done) speak for me.
When I'm resting in my grave,
there's nothing more to be said;
may the works (the works I've done)
let it speak for me, (for me).*

Verse 2

*May the life I live speak for me.
May the life (I live) speak for me.
When I'm resting in my grave,
there's nothing more to be said;
may the life (the life I live)
let it speak for me, (for me).*

Verse 3

*May the service I give speak for me
May the service I give speak for me
When I'm resting in my grave
there's nothing more to be said;
May the service (the service I give)
Let it speak for me*

Bridge

*The works I've done, sometimes it seems so small,
it seems like I've done nothing at all.
But when I stand before God's throne and hear Him say well done*

Then I know the works I've done Spoke for me
