“ Twila was a close neighbor and friend. She was a tremendous support to me when I lost my wife seven years ago and the two of them were great friends. I can hear her voice as we would be parting "see you later alligator". I've had the pleasure of meeting her family over the years and pass on my condolences to Tami, Traci, Tia and Kevin.

To my dear friend Pete, my heart breaks for you, take comfort in the beautiful memories you built together. Our love to all, Chuck (Charles) O'Neill and Ann Rempel.

“ My heart and prayers of strength, and peace for this family..I have known the 4 sisters since I was a young girl. We met at church, and all of them, a truly sweet bunch! She is in her heavenly home now, rejoicing on streets of gold. We are once again reminded, we are only passing through. Love and prayers lifted for the entire family who are grieving.

“ My heart was broken when I heard you were gone 😞...I will always remember your beautiful face, the last time I saw you , laughing and reminising about the good old days, you will always have a special place in my heart from me being a young girl and being able to hang out with the older ones, that was from having older brothers, I got to meet and have some great memories with you and others , that turned out to be life time friends. No matter how many years passed we saw each other, and we could laugh, hug and pick up like was yesterday...
I got to meet your sisters through the years and my daughter got to to meet by your nephew going to school with him ,(your family was loving and always welcoming) , you will always carry a special place in my heart, and it's never goodbye it's see you soon girl, god gained a beautiful angel 😇💕 love ya ,
praying for the family , all of you are all in my thoughts and prayers 🙏 your friend ❤️

“ I've known Twila since 6th grade , in the 90's she came over and helped me clean my kids bedroom and complained on how many toys they had. Lol . I'm still in shock and I thought the world of her 😞
