I love the times Vadie and I ate together. I would buy food and go to her house and she would cook for both of us. Those were precious times. We went to Kentucky together. I have such sweet memories of her in my heart. She will never be forgotten.

Ms. Vadieit was always a blessing having you sit in front of us at church. We all love you and you will never be forgotten. Till we see you again rest in the arms of the Lord. Love the Plummer family. Prayers sent to her family.

Mommy I miss you already! I will never forget the last two and a half years we had to spend so closely together. We had a lot of fun on our trips to the mountains. Life will be different without you but you always told us to rejoice in your death because you would be walking with the Lord! It will be hard but Kenny and I will remember all the silly and fun times and it will make us laugh. Love you so much mom, rest in peace!
