“ I will always remember when she taught me how to swim along with Joyce and Sara. I absolutely loved her peach cobbler and her chicken and dumplings. She didn't care what type of phases I went through and always supported me to be myself. I love you Aunt Vera, make lots of good food in heaven.

“ Aunt Vera was an amazing person. She was funny, kind, and had a sassy no nonsense personality that made her a joy to be around. She helped me to be a better person in so many ways. I wanted to be like her. We would go to visit and have the best time laughing together and playing Yahtzee. I'll miss her. Rest well beautiful lady. May the angels sing you home

“ Vera was my older sister. Many times I liked to tease her about being my oldest sister and also her 16th birthday present. My birthday was one day later than hers. Vera was indeed a special person in so many ways. [I was a lucky sister. I had 5 sisters I felt that way about] She loved to cook and was a great cook. Ask me sometime about her ham pie. She taught me her recipe for date balls, and better than-cake. We made pear preserves together. Boy were they good too. She had a generous heart and loved her family deeply. She loved to swim and when she was able love to dance. She loved bluegrass music and had a really nice voice. But she love to paint and do all kinds of craft things. I have several things she gave me, plus she taught me how to do a lot of them. I never could paint though. So many stories I could share but the very biggest one is how much I loved her. She will be missed so very much. Love you big sis
