“ Dear Ma,
When I lost you , I lost my best friend. I will miss getting up with you every morning and having coffee with you. i will miss all of our conversations we had. i will miss your sweet smile you always had upon your face for everyone to see. i miss your silliness when you and little Danny were always picking at one another. I loved you dearly and i love you now. i will forever miss you because you were my mom. You will always be with me, you were a big part of my life. You were a very strong woman and you made me very proud of you. I wish we still had you here, but God had other plans for you. He received a very special gift when he got you. I still cry when i think of you, which is everyday. You will forever be in my heart!

“ I remember cornbread & buttermilk, banana sandwiches, running with the door while a string was tied around my loose tooth, and my Aunt Virgie's sweet voice saying that long haired guy I saw walking down the road was not Jesus. She meant more to me than she knew. She was such a caring person, the best, and I will miss her truly.
