“ Ms English was one of the best teachers and role model I have ever had. I knew her though my family and was one of my teachers at Turkey Creek and then at Durant. I pray for the family she always would frequently talk about when I saw her and my heart also goes out to Jessica I wish I could be there.

“Mrs. Vivian English was my teacher long ago at Turkey Creek. Remembering her more recently as my friend, but always as the loving mother of a close friend. I pray for God's continued grace as Lamar faces the days ahead with strength, energy and sweet memories of his mother. Prayers for Mrs. English's granddaughter, Jessica and her husband Jason, along with their children. Praying also for Mrs. English's daughters, Carol, Marilyn and their families. The sunshine from Mrs. English will shine on in all of her family and friends. She will be missed by many.
