“ Wallace and I along with my sisters, Shirlene Reynolds Leverett and Sybil Reynolds Barron grew up together where our parents were involved pioneering an Assembly of God church. I re-connected with Wallace and his beautiful wife Mildred at Dover First Assembly of God where our families became very close and still today love each other dearly. I've never known another person in church work as devoted as Wallace and Mildred. I can see Father say to him welcome home thy good and faithful servant. Wallace modeled faithfulness and kingdom servanthood. As Bob Hope used to sing "thanks for the memories", the family and all who knows him, whether here or there in heaven, have wonderful memories. WELL DONE WALLACE, SEE YOU AGAIN.

My heart is saddened to hear of the passing of a long-time friend, Wallace Frier. I grew up in Seffner A/g Church with him, his sister, and his parents. I graduated with Wallace @ Turkey Creek High School, 1962. He was always a well-dressed young man and well-mannered. Most of all I am glad to know he still served the Lord. Wallace. your race is run. I'll meet you again in Heaven. God Bless All The Family and his faithful wife. Love, Nancy Faye Fraiser Thomas
