

Mr. Walter Joseph Wright

May 1, 2015

WRIGHT, Walter Joseph, 82, passed away peacefully at home in Lakeland on Friday May 1, 2015. Walter was born and raised in Salt Lake City, Utah. His passion for land development and real estate led him to venture from Utah to Texas, continuing to Florida working his way to the Tampa Bay area in the early 1970's. Walter is survived by his wife, Deborah Wright; daughter, Lindsay Wright; son, Charles "Bud" Jorgensen; daughter, Julie Dobbs; son, Bradley Jorgensen; daughter, Rocio Danielson; sister, Iras Trover; and numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Friends and family will always remember Walter for his life stories fully laced with his infectious laugh and smile. Walter was always full of energy and never let age or time slow him down. Walter lived life to the fullest and positively impacted those around him with his charm, charisma, and love. In his free time he enjoyed traveling, golfing, and monitoring the state lotto. Walter's lifelong passions included his family, black and white western movies, karaoke, and of course, Frank Sinatra. A Celebration of Life will be held on Friday, May 8, 2015 at 5:00 P.M. at the family residence located at 5135 Drane Field Road, Lakeland 33811. We welcome you to join us to honor Walter and share fond memories. We kindly request for you to RSVP to Lindsay Wright (907) 841-1860, if you are able to attend. Thank you. Expressions of condolence at www.HopewellFuneral.com.

Tribute Wall

BN

“ Although I haven't seen Walter in more than 30 years, I credit him for getting me started in business and for that I will be forever grateful. He was my first business partner and my mentor.

Walter was an innovator on developing and marketing lots to home builders and always a fun guy to be around.

My deepest condolences to his family in that I know he will be missed.

Ben Norbom

Ben Norbom - May 05, 2015 at 09:21 AM