“ Uncle Wayne was always so kind. I think of him and can "hear" his laugh . . . I'm sure he was usually laughing at some shenanigans that involved my Dad. Memories of the West "boys" make me smile and be proud to be a part of the family. I always loved the West family gatherings. Our deepest sympathy to the whole family. Love, Cheryl (West) and Jim Rider, Centerville, Ohio.

“ I have had many interesting and fun phone conversations with Uncle Wayne over the years. He truly was a West! Lots of stories!! Uncle Wayne was quiet, but always there. In 1994 Uncle Wayne and Aunt Dot made a trip from FL to be here for us during a time of loss. They drove straight through and turned around and went straight back because of work. They did this twice in the same year when we lost Abigail and 5 months later when we lost Karen. That always spoke volumes to me of how deeply they loved us. I will never forget those acts of great kindness. Please know that our thoughts and prayers are being lifted up for each of you. With deepest Sympathy, Love and Hugs, Cousin Gale and family
