“ What a precious Uncle, Uncle W.C, and Aunt Audrey, have been a part of my life for as long as I can remember. I have many memories of going fishing/camping and visiting them at home. When I was a young man, in my early 30's, (I'm now 74) Uncle W.C, offered to give me palm trees, which he loved to grow. I was the pastor of a small fledgling congregation in Tampa, but a pastor with a big vision. After becoming the pastor of the church, I began to do a major remodel on the sanctuary. I was also changing out and upgrading the landscaping. So the addition of the beautiful palm trees, elevated the appearance. I never forgot his generous gift that helped beautify our church grounds. Thank you sir, you will be fondly remembered here, rest in peace.
