“ I remember Will from Marshall Middle. I never became close friends with him, however we shared some classes together and when I picture him I see his face smiling with a sense of wonder at life. He was certainly one of the smartest, talented young men I've ever met. He also seemed to enjoy a good laugh and you really can't beat that. I'm very sorry for your loss and I know Will must be in Heaven using his wonderful talents to worship The Lord.

“ Caron, I only learned today of Will's passing. I am so very sorry to hear of it. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers during this continued difficult time. I have looked at the shared condolences and memories. He was clearly a very well loved and respected young man. He will be missed for many, many years to come.

“ My first year teaching was last year at Plant City High School. I did not have Will as a student, but I knew who he was. It seemed he was on every list of achievement that was emailed out. I wondered what it would be like to have a student like that. When I passed him in the hallways, he was always polite and said hello. Though it was a short life, after reading the stories, it was a life well-lived, and you should be proud of your son. His legacy will live on.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. No parent should ever have to lose a child. Our loving Creator knows how hard this is on you. We are told at Ezekiel 18:32 “for I do not take any delight in the death of someone dying, is the utterance of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.” As you can see, He does not like death anymore than we do. It is not his will for us to die which is why he’s given us the hope of everlasting life right here on earth! (Psalms 37:9-11, 29; Rev. 21:3, 4). As the God and Father of tender mercies, He wants you to find comfort in Him through prayer (2Cor 1:3).
