“ Andy, It's been one week since you've been gone. Definitely the hardest week of my life. I didn't think I could miss you this much. I wonder if I told you enough how much I love you and how proud I am of you. I hope that I did. There was still so much more we wanted to do and see and I'm heartbroken that we will not be able to do and see those things together. Maybe one day I'll get a chance to go to Scotland like we wanted. I know that you will be with me because you will always be in my heart. I love you so much forever and always.

Your loving wife,
Jen

“ Andy, I still hear you calling me by my full name, that I hated, when we were young!! But as we got older I came to appreciate the fact that you always had a way of making me feel special and unique for having such a different name. I hear your voice saying my name so clearly in my head right now as I think about our last conversation. You were an amazing friend and I know we will meet again! Sending Jen, the kids and all the family and friends my condolences. This is truly a great loss to us all. Love you always my friend!
