“ We were so sorry to hear of Bill's passing. We attended many of his estate sales and have enjoyed the items we found there. He was a true gentleman and friend. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family.

“ Richard, William and families,

Paul and I were so very saddened to learn today of your sweet Daddy's death. He meant so much to us - as did your whole family - for so many years. He was so proud of each of you and was a wonderful, loving Godfather to our Warren. We always appreciated his remembering every special event. Although we had not talked with him in too long, each time we connected by phone it was as if no time at all had passed since our last conversation. Bill was a true gentleman and the best of friends. We will miss him so much, but treasure our memories and take comfort in knowing that he is in God's loving arms. Heaven is a much happier place now. Our hearts and prayers are with you and your family for comfort and peace.

*With much love,
Paul and Mary Pat Moore and family

“ Dear Magann Family and Friends,

I am so sorry for your loss.

I worked for Bill in his house and yard for a while. I will remember him as a gentleman. Last time I saw him in town, he gave me a big smile and a kiss on the cheek. Two years in a row Bill gave me vouchers he didn't want for Rays games. At the time the Rays did not win many games and they won both games I attended so I told him maybe I should purchase season tickets.

I lost my mom in 2010 so I know a little of what you are feeling and will feel.

From a favorite song of mine, I offer these words :

*"One thing you need and nothing more,
to hear the whisper of your Lord.
Be still and know that I am God.
Rest in the arms of My embrace."*

“ A good friend who was a classmate at The Citadel 60 years ago. Talked with Bill several weeks ago. He is now safe in the arms of Jesus and was looking forward to his home going.

I loved Bill. He was my brother-in-law. Whenever we spoke on the telephone, he always ended the conversation with, come see me anytime. Your room is always ready. He was a gracious host. I'll miss him. Linda Magann
