“ JACK. It was great being able to have you around growing up. You taught me alot, from treating people well, to using my time wisely. There has been numerous times where I needed your advice and it sucks that youre not around. You were a great friend, and mentor. REST Easy JACK

“ He was the closest thing I had to a father. Him and my family devoted the last 20 years of our lives to each other and I couldn't imagine a better character to share that time with. Whether it was seeing him every day after school or the ice cream he brought over twice a week, or the hard times he made us laugh through. He was there for us relentlessly. I want to thank him every day and give him a hug, the kind of hug only Jack could give. I want to hear his jokes again and feel his compassion. He was the best man I've had the pleasure of knowing and I'm proud he raised me. I love you Jack.

I found this photo in one of his old yearbooks, a sophomore in high school.

“ Never heard a harsh word from Jack in my couple years at PLA but many a witty aside. I enjoyed knowing Jack all too briefly and unfortunately, too long ago.
My sincere prayers for comfort and peace at your loss,
